

Gateway Center for the Arts Presents

The 2023 Annual Members' Exhibit Prospectus

January 29th through March 4th

Opening Reception on Sunday, January 29th, 2:00 – 4:00

All GCA Members are invited to participate

NO ENTRY FEES

- Exhibition is open to all GCA members in good standing.
- Artists may become members or renew membership up to, and including, delivery day.
- Work cannot have been exhibited previously in the Gateway Center galleries.
- Artists are encouraged to submit up to two original works each, ready for hanging. Pieces must be wired: no hooks, saw tooth tabs, etc.
- There are no size limits, but GCA may not accept work that is too difficult or dangerous to hang.
- Free-standing work must be delivered secure and ready to display. It must be easy to move by one or two people. The artist should provide a base, if needed. (A limited number of pedestals may be provided by GCA).
- Artists may also submit up to five additional pieces – either unframed originals or reproductions, to be displayed in artist's print racks in the gallery. Pieces must be flat and secured in protective film, with artist's name, title & price attached on the back.
- GCA will charge 30% on all work sold during the show. In addition, Gateway will collect and pass through sales taxes on ALL sales. These taxes will be added on top of the artists' asking prices so the artists need not build them into their asking prices.
- Artists are responsible for insuring their own work.
- GCA reserves the right to not accept work deemed inappropriate for this venue.
